

Woodward &amp; Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

During the heated term store closes at 5 o'clock; Saturdays at 1 o'clock.

An Important Remnant Day.

A remnant day is to us what housecleaning is to housekeepers—a time for clearing up and closing out. Tomorrow's remnant day, however, will be an unusually important one—to us, because we want to close out completely every remnant in the house, in order to start August with a fresh, complete, up-to-date stock—to you, because to accomplish this we must necessarily make the prices very low.

Half prices are the rule. Less than half for many things. The goods are the broken lots, odds and ends, short lengths and the like from our ten-days' midsummer clearance sale, just ending. Some few are soiled or mused, but the majority are fresh and seasonable, and the collection as a whole is better, more worthy of thoughtful attention and easier to buy than for many a day past.

The advertisement tells only part of the story. Many equally as good bargains are not mentioned.

Friday's Bargain in Wash Dress Goods.

1,000 yards Irish Dimity, hand-some printings on heliotrope, maize, green, red, white, gray and black grounds—will be cut in any length desired.

8c. a Yard.

Regular 25c. Quality.

Wash Goods Remnants.

An unusually large and interesting collection of Wash Goods Remnants, in suitable lengths for shirt waists, shirt waists, wrappers, children's dresses, dainty Dimities, Swisses, Lawns, Ginghams, Madras and other popular sorts of summer wear, all reduced to half, some even to one-third. All are marked for quick selling and there are splendid bargains among them.
